TEAMS ALMOST COME TO BLOWS

Exhibition Between V. P. I. and Maryland Without Redeeming Feature.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va., October 6.—The first college football game of the local season between V. P. I. and the University of Maryland on Lafayette Fleid this afternon was won by the former team, after a forty-minute session of football of the lowest order. The game was no drawn out by disputes and wrangling that the intermissions amounted to more than the actual playing. The score was 12 to 9.

If there was a clean play executed during the game, it was not visible from the side lines, and all that was seen, with one or two exceptions, was slovenly line and backfield work, interminated with bad football tactics in the scrimmages.

In the fourth quarter, Ochri, the big Maryland centre, became, enraged at Gibbs, the V. P. I. centre and rushed.

in the scrimmages. In the fourimages. In the fourth quarter, Cehrl, the big Maryland centre, became, enraged at Gibbs, the V. P. I. centre, and rushed at him with waving fists Gibbs need-ly side-stepped his opponent and landed his left fist on the point of the Marylander's law. The big man dropped lke a log, and both men were banished from the neld.

When the game ended players on both teams became mixed up in the middle of the field, and it was all the spectators could do to prevent a free-for-all fight between the teams. In fact there were several exchanges of blows between parties before they were separated. This continued to the car tracks, and a pugnacious pair had to be separated before a street car could pass. Altogether it was just about as miserable an exhibition of the great American college game as one could see.

The University of Maryland team players are strangers in these parts, but V. P. I. has always been held in high exteen by the sport-loving public of this city, and the exhibition of to-fay casts a cloud over college sports here. It was no same, and neither team played anything better than fourth-class, or lower football.

Ty Cobb Will Report the World's Series for The Times-Dispatch

Ty Cobb, the great Detroit fielder and holder of most of the records in the American League, the acknowledged "best" baseball player in the world, and posted thoroughly on the fine points of the game, will report for The Times-Dispatch the post-season series between the Giants and the Athletics for the championship.

Cobb made his debut as a baseball writer last fall, when he wrote the stories of the games between the Athletics and Chicago for

The Times-Dispatch. They were in a class by themselves, depicting every side, technical and personal, of the now historic contests. "Ty" will again describe the World's Series games of 1911 for The Times-Dispatch. Don't miss the Cobb stories. Order The Times-Dispatch at once.

ANXIOUS TO SEE WORLD'S SERIES

New York, October 6.—Within twenty-four hours after the announcement yesterday of the schedule of the games of the 1911 world's baseball championship, applications for soats came in in such numbers that the officers of the New York Baseball Club were literally flooded with check-laden missives to-night. The demand was so overwhelming that extra clerks were engaged to attack the mountain of mail. The applications were too numerous to count to-night, but they ran up into many thousands.

In addition, hundreds of local fans, believing they could thus get in on the ground floor, went to the offices only to find that no tickets would be issued until the advance sale begins. The clerks bundled the letters in packages of a hundred, stamped according to the time of receipt, to be sure that the early applicants are taken care of first.

At the Polo Ground, here, where the first game will be called a week from the comorrow, preparations are nearly completed to take care of a crowd of nearly 69,000 persons.
